E-mail Template

The email template for Gadget's Den features a dark-themed header with a VR headset icon and the brand name. The main content area highlights the 'OnePlus Open' phone with a $100 discount, showcasing its foldable design. A large image of the phone is displayed next to a detailed description of its features and a 'Buy Now' button. Below this, a collage of various tech gadgets like a keyboard, a Rubik's cube, and a camera is shown. To the right, a 'Summer Offer' section promotes up to 45% off with a large image of three phones. The bottom section is divided into three categories: 'Smart Home Devices', 'Virtual Reality (VR) Devices', and 'Health and Wellness Gadgets', each with a representative image and a 'Learn More' button. The footer includes social media icons, a support email address, and links for terms and conditions, privacy policy, help, and about us.
